

20 pts - This weeks topic is important to teamwork because different personalities are what make teamworks work out. Everybody has a different personality compared to the other people and that is what makes brainstorming and coming up with different ideas so successful.

10 pts - A SMART goal I have for next week is that I want to wake up before 11 every day.

10 pts - Something I want to do differently next week is that I want to be in my home.

10 pts - Something significant I have taken away this week is that I truly don't know what I want out of my life.

10 pts - I learned that I don't know what my strengths are from explaining this my friend.

20 pts - Relating this to the gospel. In missionary work, some missionaries are more effective at some things than others. God pairs them up so that their strengths and weaknesses in their personalities can better compliment each other.

20 pts - I taught this topic to my friend and he learned that he knows his weaknesses by doesnt know his own strengths.
